George M. Dawson, C.M.G., LL.D., F.R.S.,

DEPUTY HEAD AND DIRECTOR,

MUSEUM AND OFFICES, SUSSEX STREET, OTTAWA.

Oct. 30 1897

My dear Father,

I have gone through your paper quite carefully & find it all right & clear (making only a few minor corrections of the kind or another) with one exception — The quotation from Bull.
Geol. Soc. Am. 1891 begins on p 533 & takes in all p 534, but ends there at bottom of page abruptly. How much was intended to go in?

Under separate cover I send enclosed is a copy of the Bulletin, in case you have not yours by you. Please mark it, & return, showing where the quotation is to end.

If not objected to I shall be very

Yours
George

to cut out the paragraph p 536
