

Ottawa. Nov. 16. 97

My dear Father,

I was very sorry that neither W. nor myself could get away last Saturday to visit you, for you must no doubt find the time tedious often & particularly in the dull inclement weather we have been getting lately.
I think, however, that you

May count that we are that of us will get down at the end of this week.

Everything here goes on much as usual.

I hope that you will be able to persuade Walter to take some fresh air from time to time, for she really needs it.

Yours

George
