

Ottawa. July 14. 98

My dear Father,

After considerably
delay the bookseller has procured a copy of the Cosmogony you wanted.
I think bookseller told me that you had meanwhile secured a copy & in this case you will have one to give away.
Bookseller here till a few days ago has been chilly rather than hot, but the temperature is creeping up again. I fear as that it may have been unpleasantly cold at Metis.

Bernard writes that he has secured & shipped a suitable trap & facilitates four mammals at Metis & I trust that it may prove to be satisfactory.
With love & wishes
yours
George
