

Mamma
Sunday May

Dearest William

Recieve your letter & postal card of Saturday last evg. They made me feel sorry I had decided to prolong my stay here, for I am sure you are longing to have us all back again, however it is raining & blowing today & we have been most uncomfortable for our journey to the station. It is our settled intention to leave on Sunday

My Bernard has tel: ^d about this Pullman seats & had an answers that the exchange will be all right, & as I had written I did not think it necessary to tel ^h to you.

I sent a note by a Carpenter to Mr. Luffat yesterday & a message by Mr. Jennick in the eve - but still no one has appeared this morn - I don't feel the least worried - the repairs can be done next Sun morning just as well.

It is so kind of you to write so frequently. I shall be very glad when Friday comes & we shall hope & pray for a happy morn - Saturday morn - Your affec wife
Margaret. ^{over}
