Thursday.

Dearest William

I wrote yesterday telling Cousin to Hamilton telling him to retain your letters after its receipt, that you wd attend to them before you leave again.
I registered the letters as yours enclosed had Maxwell's cheque in it. Since writing I have received testimonials in favor of Mr. Dickenson which Mrs Wilson is copying. I will enclose with this, lest you may wish to make use of them before your return. Peary's letters were received yesterday one for you I will also enclose on Constitution you will not allow Mr. Brady's affair to influence your return to Montreal by 1st Sep. We cannot get Maria before the 1st & may be short of a servant, then I you know the house will take quite a week to put to rights. What I wd propose is to send Anna & Rankine up by the 1st & the most of us, including Miss Wilson, to follow a week or so after.

Aunt is very anxious to visit the Browns & I have promised her if she will spare me the labour of house arranging. I will let her go there later in Sep.

probably after Miss Wilson has gone home. Mr. Wilson intends to come to Montreal to attend an English Church Synod early in Sep. I suppose we must try to make room for him. Yesterday I received a fifty dollar bill from Alfred Baynes & I dare say we can get it changed at the Hotel.

I have been writing several letters

I am a little tired to please except a short scrawl. I am hoping that you & dear William will be here on Sunday. When it will be so much pleasanter to talk over these matters of mutual interest. Mr. Mc Cash & Cook are both longing to greet you.

Daily Miss continues. One thing writing paper is nearly exhausted.
We are all very well.

Your loving wife Margaret.

Aunt writes to William enclosed to mine. We hear of many robberies in Montreal. Arthur Brown has had fever - is recovering - He is in the Hospital
