

The day before the Packet sailed there is nothing particular to record. I wrote the foregoing Mr. Wood and Mr. Berris spent a Sabbath with a fortnight ago all your friends were quite well then Mr. Wood had lost his youngest child by Scarlet Fever a little just two & a half years old. Never so much of the book & I have before really enjoyed them very much. Mr. Jones I have spent two months in London last summer both here & the other. I shall be very glad to know my dear friend wish you I have often wish I had been with you for I cannot very highly commend it. I wish I may I hope to see you soon. It would indeed be a great happiness.

I wish I could be with you both in London I am your friend & Mr. Dawson his your little
