My Dear Cousin

A gentleman has just called to offer carry letters or parcels to Pictou as he leaves early in the morning and it is now near ten o'clock.
The notice is rather short to do anything more than scuddle a few lines to acknowledge the the receipt of your kind letter which I can assure you was received with a hearty welcome

I purchased the doll for you some time ago but had not a good opportunity of forwarding it till the present I hope it will suit little Anna one good quality it possesses is that she weighs it about without risk of breakage.

Father Savage is lecturing in Boston this week drawing crowded houses by his eloquence I hope to have the pleasure of hearing him soon — Wendell Carter

is also delighting the musical portion of our good citizens with her concerts in connection with the Handel and Haydn Society Boston owes respect and endless thanks of amusement to the pleasure sector

Isaac's health continues to improve he very rarely goes out after night and attributes the improvement to that remedy

I would like to write to the girls or mother but have not time tonight Please give my love to all at home to William much and must you will please excuse this scrawl for the table is occupied by some friends who are amusing them selves and I am on three inches of table and almost in the dark. Whenever you want anything purchased in Boston I will ever be happy to attend to commission. Tell Lane I received the Anti Slavery Journal at last and will send it to Cornhill tomorrow Good night Dear cousin my love and paper are both expended

Your loving cousin
Barbara
