London 22 April 1854.

My Dear Mrs Dawson

I have much pleasure in complying with a request made to me by Eliza that I would communicate to you that on the 19th inst
she became the Mother of a thriving Daughter

and it will no doubt afford you sincere satisfaction to learn that she is recovering and that the small stranger is getting on as well as we could wish.

She desires to be kindly remembered to Mr Dawson and with our united regards I remain

Yours sincerely
Geo Heron
