Dear Mama,

I received your kind letter last night together with the two pairs of boots, all safe.

We have had a rain-storm this morning, and today is cloudy & cool, I hope it is the same in Montreal, and that your dreadful heat is over.
If it continues hot I think you ought to go somewhere, but going to Lachine or any of those places is no good at all.

We are to have a Vocal & Instrumental concert here this evening, at which I suppose all the elite of the place will be present; Mr. King is of course the prime mover. I suppose it will be some fun.

I send you one of the programmes, please show it to Anna, who I expect will be with you when this arrives

I was sorry to see that the Gaspé was so crowded on her trip to Nova Scotia. more than 80 were on board.

We had 22 arrivals last night, Mr Macleod among them.

Miss Radford came to see me this morning and brought me a beautiful bouquet of of lovely flowers, I got invitations to go all sorts of places I had one to go up to the Marguerite the other day.

Papa said in his letter that he would send down some College Calendars in the parcel but there were none. A gentleman asked me for one yesterday, and I promised to get it would you please send it down by post.

Excuse me for not writing a long letter as there is really nothing to say & Believe me your affectionate George
