

Aldershot Camp
13th May -

My dear Mr Dawson

I forgot to put in the little Line Table You know enclose it - look at the last page where I have marked it, as "Waterloo" is the Station for Aldershot - I do hope Mr Dawson will be able to stay over Thursday, if absolutely necessary.

he can leave early next morning, but it wd be much better if he wd stay here, after his journey, it is only an hour to town. I wd like him to meet Col. Cheaney here too, (one of our officers) a literary man, & I think they wd enjoy each others society. If he must leave on Friday. Adieu for will be able to stay a day or two longer, over the Sunday if possible, it w^d be such a pleasure to have you - I do bring George with you, it w^d be something new for him, & I sh^d so like to see him again - It will be time enough if you write by Tuesday's stage post to let us know what train you come by on Wed, & I sh^d get it by

The first post on Red-morning much love for us both to small ever for being affects heavy

By the way will you let me have one line today?
I should like to see Thursday, as I want to ask the Chemists to meet you that evening -
