

Goas to walk with Mr Cartles (a nice man)

My dearest - best mother, Thank you very much for your last most welcome letter. I will attend to all the instructions papa gave me as I wrote you a long letter last time by the "Hunard", as I am just going out in a big pilot boat with a party, & have not much time this morning I had just settled down to write when Mr Cartles (a son of the one you knew in Leulac) came in & asked me to go for a walk he is an admirer of Jesus & so nice, so upright, manly, clever, & a perfect gentleman with indomitable energy & perseverance, I enjoyed my walk very much it is so seldom one meets a really superior & cultivated young man. I am sure you would like him, he leaves on Saturday & as he lives in Toronto I will not likely see him much more, Mr Egan has been less troublesome lately, as I have taken every pleas to (in a quiet & polite way) avoid him -

We are all very well & happy & hope soon to see papa Mrs L - is going to write with best love

Yours affectionately
deceyter Anna
