Dearest Mama;

I am very much obliged to you for your very nice and long letter, and I think that it was very good of you to spend such a long time in writing to me when you have so many letters to write to and for Papa.

I am very sorry to hear that it is so very hot in Montreal, but I hope that you will take everything very easily and not tire yourself. Miss Campbell says that she is very sorry you are not down here still and out of all that heat.

I understand you ~~the~~ say that you think that George and Anna will start on the 20th if they do I will start on the 20th also; but I suppose I shall have more certain news from you before that time.

Today is my birthday, and Mrs. C. kindly presented me with a book which is very amusing and has plenty of funny pictures. It is also a very fine day, and very hot for Caccouna.

Miss C. said to give you her love, and that she will try and answer your letters tomorrow, and also that she is very much obliged to you for writing to her so often.

Dear Mama I will try and examine self, and conquer self, and I will also try and be careful about the boat: we never go out unless it is quite calm, and we also ~~live~~^{go} near shore.

On Wednesday night Mrs. King had a large party at the hotel, to which Lorne and I were asked and went. However I did not enjoy myself very much, because it was all dancing, and of course I did not dance.

On Friday the Molsons had a pic-nic out behind their house,
and then croquet after tea. The Crosses and Lanes were asked, but we were not asked, I do not know why perhaps because we live so far away; however in the evening we went to tea at the Lanes, and after tea we went to the hotel and looked at some fire-works which were going on there, and which were very good.

I will try and give as little trouble
to the Campbells as I can, I do not think I have given them much yet.

I have not been getting paper
for myself, because you left me none
but I will try and get some in the village as you wish me to.

I do not remember of anything which I want, but if I do

I will write and ask you for it.

Mr. Dunlop is down here at present, and he is staying at the hotel.

We have a great many of pleasant games of croquet, nearly every day, but Mr. Hard is going home the day after tomorrow, and I think that most of them will depart with him.

I think I will take a quite bath today it is such a very delightful day, and it is also quite hot for here.

Give my love to William and tell him that I am much obliged to him for his nice letter, although he does not tell very much news in it.

I remain your loving son
Kankine
