My dear Mother,

I arrived here Safe & well last evening after journeying sixteen days from Montreal. The direct mail by Steamer closes shortly, & I sit down after having unpacked my things, merely to announce the fact that I am here.

Some of the Railway survey parties have already gone into the interior, two having left last-Friday, & two more this morning

Tomorrow or next-day when my plans are somewhat matured I hope to write at greater length, & give you some account of my trip, which has been on the whole a very pleasant one.

With love to all

Believe me
your affectionate son George
