

Dear

6, George Square, Edinburgh.

2<sup>d</sup> June 1879

My dear Mrs. Dawson

I dare say
you will be surprised to receive a note from me but I write to introduce
you to Mrs. & Mrs Jackson who are to sail from Liverpool on Thursday for a tour through Canada
& the States to the

visit their son who has a Station near Ottawa, I have asked them to call for you as I am quite sure you will show
them a little attention & I shall consider it a kindness to myself, Dr. Jackson is a very worthy
man & a fine
Glasgow merchant.

resides here, and is sister to Mr.
Grant, Pastor of
the Bristol Place
Baptist Chapel,
who is to be married
in the end of this month to an old friend of yours Miss Jane Colburn Galathie.

I trust you are well in the enjoyment of good health, many changes have taken place since we last

met, our family is now very small but God has supported me through all my sad trials. My brother William writes
in kindest regards
to Mrs Dawson & yourself & with much
love. believe me
your affectionate friend
Mary Green
