

Love to Dear Mrs Carpenter
-let- also to your home circle, for yourself and my large needs like pen Your affectionate friend

My very dear Friend.
I dropped Dr Dawson and have completed your card to my as a visit.

I was pleased to receive your kind loving note, nor shall I ever forget - the visit - you, and your good husband paid to me the day of my accident, I was most char-
-ed me. Since that day we have had the pleasure of seeing Dr Dawson, it was kind of him to give us an evening, which we all greatly enjoyed -

I must tell you of God's tender ~~loving~~ mercy - For a few days last week, I had been taking a few steps with help, but on Sunday evening, I took a little walk with my dear husband in the garden, it was indeed a time of great thankfulness to us, I have not much pain now - I hope soon to be able to move about as usual. I am well, but I feel my weakness now, I am up.

Oh! it is so gracious & loving of my Father, thus to have proved me, to my dear husband, and I trust to move earnest work to his glory, Your precious note tells forth the feelings of my grateful heart; no words can tell my deep sense of his sparing love.

May my life be a psalm of praise.

I send you part of a note to read, from Mrs Armstrong's mother, you will feel for them.

I am glad the trees you so graciously name for us; flowers, they will continue to do so I trust; & thus remind you of loving, true hearted friends.

Will you give my love to Mrs Harrington, I hope her treasures will grow strong & rich, during their stay at Melis, & that she and her Mr. Hubbard will return greatly benefitted by the change.

Did E. Medford tell you that we think of going to England in Sept. Mr. Medford has taken a state-room for the 25th by "Yarmouth".

I anticipate with joy the meeting my loved ones again, more particularly my dear sister who is extremely delicate.

But this joy is mingled with sorrow, for some I love dearly, I leave behind. I hope you will return before that time.

Do come back in good health prepared for your many duties, I trust the Dr. will lay in a store for his work. Will you give my
