82

My dear Mother,

I think it must be a long time since I wrote to you, but the reason has been simply that there has been nothing particular to record. I write you only to acknowledge your letters & tell you that I am still alive. My boxes have arrived from the north-west, but I have not got them unpacked yet. Please tell Rankine that I have his letter

2

I will answer it tomorrow.

Your affectionate son

George
