March 27. 82

My dear Mother,

I arrived here safely a short time ago, & find everything much as usual, though a downpour of rain is in progress. Quite a number of gentlemen I knew were on the train, including Col Denney who has just returned from England.

When I said I had no plans for next summer I did not mean that I had no ideas

Whatever. I hope I shall go about & see ruins & rocks & such like interesting sights, & may I hope have a very good time of it.

Please ask Rankine to send me the letter from Burpee which I left with him.

Your affectionate Son
George
