Dearest mother, we were pleased to hear that you had had so speedy a voyage in the Paris train - though if you were ill I daresay it seemed long enough to you. It will seem long to us before we hear when you have joined - I have not yet come to a great settling place - much of the disorder caused by the war still remains to be put away.
There seemed so much to be seen to outside -

Mrs Benhallow is a bright pretty little woman absolutely fond of society & with no idea of being a shabby professional - She lunched with me one day & wore a wonderful black Japanese silk - very heavy & rich - I agree on kindness when we took her to church was arrayed in a coronet handsome silk - she has one child a boy of 3 - I was for two years in Japan with Mr P. - she is a Congregationalist he a Unitarian, both I fancy not much of anything - We have asked them to dinner on Friday with Prof & Mrs Inyke, & Florence & W. so that is the present situation to be remounted.

Carry is much pleased with her German vocalist & her connection with the high & mighty, but I fear it is wearing for her - especially when John is away - she can scarcely speak of you without tears - & I am sure follows you with all benedictions

I am anxious to hear what your plans may be as I did not hear how your tour was to be arranged - If I can I will enclose a list of my needs & desires in this. The weather has been quite hot for the last week a return to summer that is not wholly unpleasant - the lovely weather I have rejoiced in on account

9. 10. 9 4 - who a carding & has not to me, have them very happy each day more so than, the last. We expect - that back tonight, & have these some last - batches of clothing in for their benefit - There long in & say that she has quite enjoyed her holiday & is "satisfied" - also to the fact that her brother was down for a long & night & total her the head better with - she said since - he total & give up. can you see why think she was taking he does as she expressed it - a very sweet old man - I think I see the necessity of a cook - not appears favorable

The happy hour hour both looking very well & becoming, also remember they are getting themselves as well they can - W - not going back to the office Monday - their minds still run on pleasure day told of having a short Latin business in their new character - I wish I could there, but my dinner parlors are its on my part. I had a long letter from Franklin remembering the story of the wedding, etc. - I had but a few his - No complaint that bringing is coming well - he seemed much pleased about the presentation to papa - ?

As to the way, & we are like quartz for papa - my dear was thought - the security of the of the 3^d far more as to late, have all eyes were turned to see her lower neck her & when they saw her such with papa's arms - they thought she had scarce a very slender she & willow were immensely at the close -

Remember come for a change & well as he has been with Typhoid - I have called on Mrs You Bell & Mrs W. Mc-Lennan - & indeed have spent some thought & time in advertising Mrs Pen - & Florence in quarters that I thought desirable -

Miss Lunn has gone to Newport - the Campbells are home again, still however kept in seclusion, as Adelaide declined to dine with us tomorrow as they went nowhere -

Bernard was at St. A's for two days & found his father looking better than he had expected & Mary father & stronger than for a long time back -

The favor I gave you I wd like you to give to Miss Harris if you see her B. sent the Fitts a copy of Sir W. Logan & I did not want to pepper them with reminders of our mistake the nursery ~~books~~ for Ella Much love to Mrs Redpath.

How fortunate to find Miss Ramanuel on board, I hope it will serve you trouble

Bernard has had photos taken of the little girls, which I think you will like to show to inquiring friends & I will send you copies as soon as possible - I must get some foreign note paper & give you one of those charming photos of mine I cannot remember having given you one they were $1.00 a dozen & look best at night - If you have one you can give it to any one who wants it -

With love to papa & Eve - & kindest greetings to any one you are with - Yours affectionately
Anna -

I miss you at every corner - I having ^{now} I was home makes your absence all the more felt -

Sept 19th -
