My very dear Mrs. Parsons
A few days ago I received the bedding cards for which accept my thanks
- I did not know you were so near to be married to soon - else I should have written to him - now, I am sure is all the excitement of his new found joy, a letter from me would be only a bore - so I shall content myself in saying to you, how very much I pines I trust it is there for the dear young couple - I cannot tell you how I rejoice & rejoice I hear of the Lord's people being married. you I always think there is another Christian home formed - and another centre from which Christ's life will shed its influence all around - & as I know that your dear Lion will be one of those centres, I rejoice exceedingly on this account - when you see him, will you tell him how earnestly I pray that his comfort & happiness will be increased by union with me, &c. from what I hear of her years that she knows her will indeed prove a help to him is very good work -

I suppose you are aware that they are preparing for your extended visit to England &c - I trust it may do you a deal of good & even a great deal of good in every way - & that you may meet with many of the Lord's dear people & in having intercourse with them that your soul may be very much refreshed - & that you may return to Montreal in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ - and then we, who "tarry at home" shall have a "share in the spoil" -

I am more than busy - but oh! the Lord has done such great things for us, in the saving of hundreds of precious souls and is, that I seem buried up all the time, & my heart is simply full of joy & praise.

But I must not weary you with a long letter in these days when you are necessarily so much occupied - so with dear love to Anne, Ees & family - & very kind & loving remembrance to Mr. Dr.
son. Ees believe me dear Mrs. Dr. dear,

Yours & act. affec.
in the Lord friend,
"A. St. One".
