

D. W. Kemp.

Acc. 976

IVY LODGE
TRINITY, EDINBURGH

12 June 1881.

Disards

My dear Mrs Dawson,
Yesterday I rec^d
from my friend W.

Macdonald a few copies of his printed
letter on Laundries.

I enclose one & shall be happy to give you more if you desire
them. - If you could spare time to visit the Mercey

Company's Laundry

I feel sure you would be highly gratified & rewarded by obtaining many practical hints.

I understand it is one of the best equipped we have. I shall endeavour to get some more information on the subject.

I suppose D. Dawson
sails for home to-day.
Our best wishes follow him. We hope he may

Have a happy, prosperous, and speedy passage, & find all well on the other side. —

Thank Miss Eva
for her letter. I shall send it over to Ella this afternoon. She will be delighted at the near prospect of seeing you again. Our regret is that the time of your sojourn
is so rapidly passing.
We shall be delighted

To entertain you for as long a period as you can afford us,
in our humble quarters
No. 1. Bentfield, Burntwood.

The weather is very pleasant here, but I hope it may still further improve before you
return south.

Very faithfully yours
D. Williams

