

REF.	3
ACC. NO.	976125
MCGILL UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES

Dear Madam To the Honour
 Mrs Perceval
 130 Pittmore Place
 Paris

Book sent this to the Hon^{ble} M^{rs} Perceval by way of Mr. Beach
 R

Westwood
Helenburgh
27th July 1806

My dear Felly Dawson

My heart leapt when my eye caught on your name as being one of the injured ones at that ill accident last Friday at Plymouth, I hoped that there might be a mistake in the correction from Edinburgh, I do trust you have now recovered from the shock and fright which you must have received, for I was thankful to learn

You were not seriously hurt, I am sure you would feel thankful that Mr William had not gone, Dns then him much hurt? In I supposed that he must have been with you now entirely that days pleasure must have been spoiled & those in me
- by affected by the accident, and showing us how constantly dependent we are, on the care of our heavenly Father, please when you feel able let me know how you are & where you are likely to be until you go to Birmingham where Hope to see you before you leave again for home - as I am at present very poorly I'm to remain all winter with Maggie. She has long been longing for it to do - I think I can do more readily as I never expect to return again, & I have felt since then early than all others I should like to see some kindly intercourse ^{with} Mrs. in about from then some morning summer, but I must stop in the city & take this to the Earl. I wish she is here with me writing this. I think some in the church Other great & good many of the same of the 1799 can do much for the poor & the from the Earl.