

Leclercville P. I.

Acc. 1377

Joly de Lobiniere 15 March 89.

My dear Lady Dawson
Allow me the pleasure of thanking you and Sir William Dawson
for your kind hospitality. I enjoyed my visit very much, and especially the privilege of making the personal acquaintance of Sir William Dawson, whom I only knew by his writings. I sincerely hope his health may be spared, for many more years, so that he may be allowed to prosecute the great task he has set himself

Please remember
me kindly to him
and the young ladies
and believe me, dear
Lady Dawson

Yours very truly

J. Joly de Lotbinière