My dear Mother,

I am much obliged for the pair of socks received some time ago, but did not intend to send them by post. It would have done well enough but we pick them up on one of my visits. Father also wishes to see existence of an old wreath of mine in Montreal. I do not

Reminds anything about it, but if mine I feel sure it may be given away. Wore probably it is something of Rankins. I had a post card the other day, by the way, from him in Jerusalem, but probably saw few letters.
 From what Father writes I suppose you few made up your minds to sail for England on the 27th & I must try to get time for another visit to Montreal before that date. This week or rather that, I have been exceedingly busy with all sorts of things, but there is no reason why this should cost. You will note that we have a new Minister now, Mr Daly retiring from active political life. I have seen W. only once since my return from Montreal last, but have no reason to believe that he is otherwise than well.

I hope you are enjoying the beautiful weather. Last advices from England that I have heard speak of much rain.

Yours
Truly,
