Lord Stretton

53, CADOGAN SQUARE, S.W.

London 4th March 1898

Dear Lady Dawson,

Let me give you
many thanks for your letters of the 2nd January and 19th February. The latter gives me welcome intelligence that the condition of Mr Williams is far less grave than

Newspaper reports indicated. I do assure you this is a great relief to my wife and myself, and to your own and Mr Deans numerous friends on this side of the Atlantic and we all sincerely trust he may soon be restored in a great measure to health and strength. Will you make our kindest remembrances to him:

I am much obliged for bro Dr Mearns kind thoughts in sending me the Memorandum on a Model College for Women, and I feel under an obligation to him for all the valuable counsel he has kindly given me from time to time on this and other matters relating to education.

I trust your own health is good and my wife who I am sorry to say is not

Pray join me in kindest regards for yourself and Mr. Deane and Believe me to be

Dear Lady Dawson,
in haste
very truly yours

W. H. Conant
