My dear Mother,

What am I to do under the difficult circumstances indicated in the enclosed note?
I must trust to your advice, & will act upon it, although I don't see why I should be called upon to accept any responsibility, nor do I understand what sort of documents should be drawn up in connection with the Ceremony which I certainly cannot attend! Probably it may be necessary to provide the infant with a nurse, but I do not know if this will exhaust my responsibility.

Please return the letter with your remarks as I shall have to answer it.

Yours
George
