My dear Walter,

Please thank Father for his kind note received yesterday, with your postscript.
I cannot get away for long just at present & until matters set a little more settled down to a summer status here, but if it will be any particular convenience to you, would meet you at Tuesday evening's train, in Montreal & go with you to Quebec, returning here immediately.
I fear I could really be of very little use in that way, for I presume that Bernard will be able to meet you on arrival at Metis station & it would surely be to be with you during the night on the train, but if it will be any convenience or help to you will be glad to undertake the trip. If so please let me know in the course of the day, tomorrow, by telegraph, so that I may arrange. I should love to leave here at three o'clock on Tuesday afternoon.

What I fear most is that you may overtake yourself before leaving & I do hope that you will endeavor to avoid this & rather let matters go adrift a little on all non essential points than risk it.

Don't hesitate to let me know if I can be of service in the way indicated.

Yours
Serge
