Dear Lady Dawson,

Last night the Deane referred in his sermon so splendidly to Sir William that I thought I wd. take the liberty of suggesting that you ask Dr. Harrington to request the Deane to let you read it. Only you will miss the warmth & the impressiveness of Dr. Carmichael's delivery.

Did you see the Times in last Thursday's Gazette?

They were written by Mr. Dogan, whose wife had been standing on the mountain as the procession entered the cemetery, & she told him that at that moment the heavy clouds parted & the rays of the Sun shone down on the sacred spot. -

I was so thoughtful of you to think of sending a paper to my mother. It will be truly appreciated. — Loving News
