My dear Lady Dawson

I have refrained from troubling you with a letter until now - knowing well, what your sad grief must have been -
The greatest you have ever had - or can have - I do most sincerely sympathize with you in the loss of the best of husbands - as well as one of the best Christians - and greatest of men - who had won the love and esteem

of all - and whose name is an undying one - I had no idea he was ill so that when the Montreal newspaper arrived with the obituary notice I was quite shocked

What-a Blessing it is for us to be sure that the dear ones who have passed away - are safe - as we are sure Sir William is it - takes the sting of death completely away - I can only hope that when our call comes - we may be as ready as he was - Remember us kindly to your son George - and with much love & sympathy
