My dear Lady Dawson
I am very grieved to hear of the great loss you have sustained in the death of your dear husband. It is really a national bereavement & one which we can
ill afford at this time

1. PAUL WALL EAST,
LONDON, W.C.

Many all over the Empire
are pining at his loss, not only to the world
of science but as one of the foremost champions of an evangelical faith: & in these days of man liberalism we need
competent & able defenders of the faith.

Excuse my intruding
a year in your great

know - I thought it would be some consolation to you to know how much Sir William's
work was appreciated especially by those who have to work amongst young men & try to win them to Christ-& to practical firmness
With sincerest sympathy from Lady Mordaunt and
