

Mr. Wm. Larline
O

601 Sherbrooke Street,
Montreal 22^d Nov^r 1899.

Dear Lady Dawson

I hope you will not consider it presumption in me to send this note of sincere sympathy for you in the sore bereavement you have suffered in the death of your beloved husband, Sir William Dawson, and to hope that you have found and will daily find in this time of sorrow that the Lord is the God and Father of the fatherless and judge of the widow.

It was my privilege and honour to be associated for some time with your husband in Church and Sabbath School work, when, I was pleased to sit and learn as a delighted pupil at his feet, and I shall ever through the course of my life here, look back with pleasure and gratitude, cherishing many fond recollections and valuable lessons, from that

Happy time.

Accept dear Madame my sincere sympathy for you and all your family in this sore bereavement and time of sorrow and believe me to be

Yours very respectfully
David M. Farlane
