My dear Lady Dawson

I have been so grieved to hear of your loss & have felt that the world is poorer for that dear Sir William has been taken.
He spoke with weight & authority on many questions whose knowledge & learning could not be gained.
But the loss to you must be devastating. though you will be able to look forward to reunion in the Saviour's Presence before very long -

I do hope dear Sir William did not suffer much -

I look back with so much pleasure to seeing him here when he was over with you -

May the Lord comfort you in this sore bereavement with warm sympathy believe me yrs truly

Louisa Knudsen
