Dear Lady Dunsen

It was only a few weeks ago that I received a most friendly letter from Sir William & was I have the humble duty of writing you sympathies with you in the great loss of your wife's partner I hold his memory in the greatest esteem & if I could say anything to mitigate your grief it should be kind - all I can say is that the loss of my wife a few years ago enables me to realize what the living of two lives means -

- I should have written earlier but we are in such tribulation

- A young lady of about 24 years age a native of Queensland Australia recently has been taken suddenly ill & her life hangs on a thread. We have two trained nurses - the house & two doctors - attended

- In addition one of my daughters is being ill & all are overworked

- The distress of father & sister who had to be telegraphed for to the Mother of England is most appalling.

I shall become up the Last letter from Sir William will be well felt & impartially believe me my dear Lady Dearson most & sincerely Yours.
