Dec. 14th 1899

My dear Lady Dawson

I learned with deep regret that your dear husband
and my valued friend had after a long useful & highly honorable career been called to his reward. I beg to offer you my most sincere sym-pathy upon the
irreparable loss
you have sustained

you have the consolation of knowing that his memory is affectionately cherished
in the hearts of a grateful home
- by who recognize the splendid lifelong service he has rendered to it.

I feel that I have lost one of the most valued friends I have ever known & it will be a great pleasure to find it in my power at any time to be of service to any member of his family. With Kindest regards

I remain
yours faithfully
Charles Tupper
