30th June -

My dear Mr. Dawson

I regret exceedingly that this very rainy
afternoon has prevented me having the pleasure of visiting you, -
Especially as I felt
after you left me yesterday, I had not heard from you of
many kind friends
I used to value in Canada - and as you leave tomorrow I must look forward

to your return, please God - when I shall
hope to see you
again -

I trust the sea air
in life may benefit
you & your son,
& with kind remembrance to Dr Dawson - Believe me -

Very truly yours
Samuel Cockburn
