

Friday -

My dear Mrs Dawson -

I enclose the note I wrote yesterday to show that even before your note came I had written to thank you
for all your kindness.
I was & am very much flattered by Traubner's most charming letter & beg you will thank him most cordially - If it were within my power to make any other arrangements, I should be only too delighted, but now alas! it is too late - Passages secured, trunks packed - everything ready for an early start

tomorrow morning -

It is a very great disappointment, but notwithstanding what Mother is good enough to say about allowing me to stay out here & have a "good time" I feel more & more every day that my real place for next winter is at home & that it would be very selfish for me to spend the next three months here - a case of base desertion in fact!

Your letter made
me feel quite homesick & filled me with a
longing to see all my old friends, but I hope it will not be so very long before we shall meet again -

I am afraid you will all think me very heartless not to have made a greater effort to go to Montreal - but indeed I cannot help
it -

With very much love
& very many thanks
Believe me -

Yours lovingly -
Amy Gordon Hall
