Dear sensible child
& I am sure will do well here. We have managed to give her
a little room to herself, & try to make her feel as much at home as possible. We have not seen any traces of home-sickness & she is busy & happy with

Fauconberg House,
Cheltenham.

Dear Mr: Dawson

I think now I may fulfil my promise to send you a few lines.
& tell you about Anna.
She seems to have settled down very comfortably & I think is quite happy.
or as nearly so as one can be away from all friends. She is en-

her companions all day.
As you thought, her knowledge is somewhat unequal, so she has not been placed very high in the College. but her teachers see already that she is intelligent & industrious so she will soon get higher.
If there is anything that we can do for her comfort & happiness you will let me know.

Miss Cairnes unites with me in kindest regards to all your party & hopes to have the pleasure of seeing you soon. Anna sends her love.

Believe me
very sincerely yours
Leticia Howard
