My dear Mr. Dawson

Mamma meant to have written to yourself^{her} this morning; but she is called away to a meeting & besides I fancy you have found out by this time, that she very particularly dislikes letter writing & that I hold the office of private secretary to her. Do you think it bad treatment, her asking you to let her delay her visit for a week? I hope you do not.
The reason is that Mr. Rainford is to be with us for another Week & his words to us, seem to be such a supply for all the wants we feel to much, that Mother felt as if she could not go away & miss them. On Thursday night after the bible reading, she said I should like to hear him next Thursday; but I could not put off my visit, Yesterday morning she said, I wish I could wait; & in the evening she said I must hear him again.

I felt sure you would urge her to do so if you knew & I do trust you will not think we are trifling with your great kindness.

W. R.'s subject last night was the well
of living water in us.
No force or efforts outside were enough we must have the living power of Christ within.
Mamma will tell you about it.

A visitor has just come in so I must close with deepest love to you all from Mother & myself.
Mamma will leave next Tuesday if all is well by the morning train & hopes you will forgive her delay

Yours very aff^{ly}
Janie Wilson.
