

Amos Wilson

McGILL UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
ACC. NO. 976
REF.

117, Bloor St.

Toronto.

March 20th.

My very dear Mrs. ~~Dickson~~

We know that you are sympathising with us in our deep sorrow, as we are with you in your joy.

Give dear Anna our fondest love & may her little boy, be as great a joy & pleasure to you

& her, as our darling's boy was to her & to us.

I am sure that Annus boy, who has been dedicated to Jesus, will be taken by the Good Shepherd, who would never refuse the gift, thus given back to the Giver. May he long be lent to his Mother & to you.

Your little Grandson was born, into the world our Saviour had redeemed, just the day before, he heard, that our beloved one, was safely landed in the Haven, beyond the storms of this troublesome world.

When you pray for your dear little Grandson, ~~and~~ you remember our ~~mother's~~ boy & ask if it be God's will that we may be allowed to have him?

Darling Jessie was ill not quite a week & literally fell asleep in sleep. She did not know she was going & said no farewell words even to her boy. Those dear eyes opened again in a world, where farewells are unknown.

I sent you a paper, to give you a little account of God's wonderful work in Hunts He still pours down upon us showers of blessing & one rarely sees any one who is not glad to speak or hear of Jesus. Aunt Dora sends you her loving congratulations, she is so busy for us that she will not write at present.
Mother sends warmest love & sympathy in yours & remains for. Yours lovingly, Jamie Wilson