Dear Anna

"Here we are again".

We yesterday received your letters, papas letter, and Williams to Rankine all dated the 25.

We were very glad to hear of all the prizes which you have got, you must bring them down and show them to us. Also please congratulate Mina on Those which she has got.

This letter is written at Mamas instigation, principally to inform Papa that the ground, (or rather rocks) around this house is (or are) altogether too rocky for anything approaching to a garden, Mama has however got a stone wall built up with a cart load of earth inside, in front of the house, she wants to know if she could get two or more verbenas,

or some other such flower, in pots to put in it. (Mind you in my own private imagination I consider it impossible, not only because of the lateness of the season but also considering the short time you will have to obtain them in when this reaches you).

We are suffering for want of you here, a fine large salmon was offered at the door today and as he (le garçon) would not eat it we could not get it, there not being enough of us to eat it.

You said papa had sent the American Naturalist, down by Miss Lunn. I suppose I will get it tomorrow; If he has only sent one, as your letter would lead me to suppose please ask him, when he comes to bring all the rest relating to the silkworms.

Mama asks me also to tell you that if you have the opportunity she would be glad if you would go to see Lina before you leave.

Mama wants to apologise for having sent the messages so straglingly.

Believe me your ever affectionate Brother
George.
