Dear Anna,
Your packet
of letters arrived this morning, and a little after Mamma & my Mamma had left for Tadousac. I shall send the letters after them by steamer tonight. I do not wonder that you thought we had forgot to write. I have had

No time to write to any one except a cousin; but have been building every one else for negligence.
Mamma however has been almost wished to death in getting George ready, William has been free of his high school work and George is large. Some letters however have gone, and I trust

have reached you.
William and I are now the only persons of the family at home, and shall have the pleasure of making the visit as we best may till the 13th, when I purpose to leave for Nova Scotia.

I am very glad that you seem to enjoy yourself, and I trust that the visit will do you good. I do however remain

To want like a well coll in the country of
and watch me for as carefully as you can

I shall be very glad to see you again so do not postpone your departure for more any longer than may be quite agreeable and if you should want money or anything else, please let me know.

Give our very sincere love to Mrs Brown
and the girls and believe me your ever
true friend.
