Tadousac July 22
Wednesday.

My Dear Anna,

I got your letter last night saying that you intended to return to Montreal on Thursday, & this one I hope will reach you soon after your arrival.

You spoke though rather indefinitely of coming down here, If you do I would not advise you to come at present as the hotel is now quite full, & more people coming down tonight, &

what they are going to do I am sure I don't know.
It would be very nice if you could come down for a little while but under the circumstances I would not advise it at present.

You need not always be writing to ask if I am not lonely, for I am not at all, as yet. I suppose

Mana has showed you the programme of the "Concert" I went off very nicely indeed & the "negro melody in costume" was enjoyed.
There were about a hundred & twenty people, & so

Dollars 50 cents were taken. We had the room nicely decorated with spruce, flag, &c. Miss Lemon whose name you will see in the programme, is ~~a~~ very nice, from Quelfh; and sang beautifully. Mr Holmes who sang the negro song, is an American here on his wedding trip, he is thirty five & his bride only fifteen the cruel parents would not consent, so she went out to go to Sunday-school one day & ran away with him. Quite romantic?
Both the Lemons, & Holmeses have gone away now, however. The people here are always changing, something like a kalidroscope changing a little every day & never coming round exactly the same as at first.

When you write will you please answer a few questions Has China come home? Has O'Hara gone away, & if so where?
Have the Barnards gone, & if so where; &c. I hope by the time this arrives your great heat will have somewhat abated, and allow you to enjoy the pleasures of summer without so many of its pains.

With love to all believe me your affectionate George.
