Dear Miss Dawson, W

I must in the first place deeply apologise for not acknowledging your very kind and handsome present of a cover, so beautifully worked. I am only full sorry you should have bestowed so much labour upon me who deserve it so little.

I am sure you will be sorry to know I have been seriously ill for some weeks, and at the time your dear brother arrived I was quite unable to see him. I am told he is much improved since he was in England:

I trust he will pass his time pleasantly, having got very comfortable lodgings and a companion student which I think is a charming acquisition: —

I can scarcely thank Mrs Sawson sufficiently for her bountiful presents of delicious peaches, which travelling as well as if they had only come a few miles. — I suppose since I had the pleasure of seeing you, you have advanced to womanhood. with many more duties and cares, than in your Scholastic Days. —

I am sure you will excuse an old lady of 80. saying much more my term of years are spent, and may God in his own good time grant me a happy entrance into his blessed mansions above.

Please accept my very kindest regards for yourself and Mr. Dawson and believe me sincerely yours

Caroline Keyser —
