Friday 18/7/70

Dearest Anna,

Last mail was late and letters from home reached us here only yesterday (Friday). I am writing today to Mr Rogers, as Conway and tell the opportunity to embrace them. We are well and are making arrangements for lodgings for Mamma and Serge in a pretty place at Dunbartonland (Galahill Cottage) Dunbartonland. So soon as Serge gets here I shall see them settled and take flight, either by the Steamer of the 7th July or the 14th July.

I am sorry that I shall not be at home when you & Mamma pay, but hope you and William will manage prudently and well. Please keep yourself cool and do not allow yourself & he too much excited with the affairs of your friends.

Thank Eva very much for the nice little letter about she wrote to me; and say to William that I think he is very naughty to be satisfied with his position, more especially as the examinations are a few better test of what he is and of what he will do in college than the places in class, in which I have very little faith.

Please say to D. Carpenter that I have not had a moment to write to him; but that I have determined upon all the shells and sea eggs, Mr. Anderson & Mr. Carpenter be, and shall report to him verbally when I return.

We leave this place today for Solano and shall go next week to Solanbuelo & Dalhousie. All love to you all, but Papa Rankine from Mamma Mr. Mentante Pott
