Dear Mother,

This is a horrid cold rainy day I wish it was fine. Most of the people are going away this week the Becks are going away on Saturday. My grandma has offered me 25¢ if I will pick the

Rown berries off five or six trees in the front I have picked more than half of them already and have offered Conrad 3 cents for taking off
the top ones and Bernard 1¢ for a little help but I find that Bernard works harder than Con
so I will have to alter the agreement. How long is Aunt Mary
going to stay with

you? When Father told Grandpapa that you
had bathing in the river he was quite surprised he did not know
there was a river near
you. I think Aunt Florence is going to go up the same day as us if not the day after if she does I pity the other people in the pulman
for the noise will be most terrible with

and Aunties. How is Eric and how are you dear Mother? Baby has taken up crowing
he crows and crows
the whole day long
instead of blowing
out his breath he draws it in.

With Much love

to Eric and Yourself

Ruth
