Dear Love

I have just a few moments in which to write, but feel that I must send you something, if only a few lines. I think of you day & night and feel how lonely it must be for you. Joyce & Rankine are on the way from the west and telegraphed yesterday from Winnipeg where Nancy Rankine is remaining for a few days. Will has had to go to Halifax, so Frank will will just miss seeing all three. She goes down to the Banquet this evening between 8 & 9.

Kate has turned up this afternoon, but I have not yet seen her nor heard what she intends to do, but hope she is going to stay for the winter. Had but not, it is The witness to night announced the appointment of Mr. Peterson as the new principal, giving also his portrait and a short sketch of his career. If the appointment has really been made I hope it will turn out well, and I wish we had not heard so many things against the man

Yesterday I was told that one of Mrs Fry's daughters had spent last winter at the Saranac Sanatorium & received great benefit. Mrs Fry and her sister (Dr Adams mother) were I think out there, but probably not at the Sanatorium. I am going to see Adams tomorrow if possible and may get useful information from him.

Ruth has been at the dentist's this afternoon and he (Beers) finds a number of holes in her teeth.
 The High School Sports came off this afternoon & another event. I am almost sorry that, I did not let him take part, but he did not seem very keen about it. Last evening I told him that it was past bed-time and that he must go to bed at once.

 He at once burst into tears and said "Oh father, if you make me go to bed now I will lose all my marks"

Yesterday being Constance's birth-day she had little Drummond & Constance Bony to tea. I did not get home in time to see the fun, but believe the intertainment was a great success, and Constance is none the worse for cake and Candy to-day.

With love for yourself & Eric & your friend Bernard.
