My dear Anna,

I got back here on Saturday evening, having to return unusually early in view of Dr Selwyn's visit to England. Dr S. got away in fact before I got back, but not long. Rankin I happened to meet at Rivestoke & we travelled as far as Ottawa together. He stayed here yesterday & this Morn. went on to Montreal, proposing a visit to Sam & Eric Peter. He seems to be in fairly good spirits & appears to like travelling in a professional capacity better than settled existence. I do think that he can get more travelling opportunities if he wants them. If he should elect this mode of life there is really nothing against it & one does not feel inclined to influence him to give it up for a 'settled' existence which might not prove to be Satisfactory. When you finally decide what is the best course & place for Eric in the winter I trust that you will let me know what I can do to help you in the matter, & as I have already said that the question of expenses will not be allowed to interfere with whatever appears to be the best course.

 Before long I shall try to make out a visit to

Montreal, but for a few days it will be necessary to remain here a few days in train again

Yours

Frederic
