My dear Mrs. Harrington

Will you accept
my sincere & affectionate sympathy, in the loss which you have
so recently sustained,
by the removal of your
highly esteemed and
honored father, from this scene of labor to another.

To you & to me death

is but the beginning of a fuller life, so that we do not need to sorrow for our bereaved ones who have entered in. They have joined the "cloud
of witnesses" who are watching us run the race. Are they not also ministering spirits?

In connection with
your father and his work, I remember when he had been here but a few years, & while I was at Miss Leguac's School,

the lectures which he used to give us each winter and how much
we used to enjoy them.

His lectures were always sources of inspiration to the students.

His memory will live in the hearts of all who knew him, and he being dead will yet speak.

Affectionately yours

Mary M. Savage
