My dear Anna,

I have pretty well decided to leave here for the west on Monday or Tuesday next, the 20th or 21st.
Would it be possible for you to induce you to make the trip with me as my guest?
It would give you a chance to see something of the mountains etc. a would be little more than a run out a book as my business will not necessarily take more than a few days & will not require me to go as far as the Coast. It seems to be a good chance & would be a great pleasure to me.

I have a letter from Rankin written yesterday in which he tells we be postponed leaving notes till Wednesday or Thursday. This will not give us very much time to look over ~~the~~ ^{the} biography, as I can only find scraps of time to fit here.

 You might let me know what you think about it - I feel still strongly impressed with the probable utility of passing it through the hands of some outside literary man.
 It is likely to be the only extended biography & should be made as good as can be while we are at it. I don't think a little delay more or less matters very much.

I hope you will consider my plan for a trip favorably & take Mother's advice on it.

ask Mother if she is sure Mr Brown (mentioned in autobiography) came from Worcester. I want to find his initials but cannot find him named in the B.A.A.S lists for 1883 or 1884 yours George.
