RIDEAU CLUB
OTTAWA.

Jan. 20, 1901.

My dear Anna,

I am returning
enclosed father's letters to Eric etc that you sent me some time ago, for you to doubt values
them & I fear that I may mislay them if I should keep them too long. I have heard nothing more about the autobiography & while in ignorance cannot take any further steps. William dined with us the other evening & we had a long talk about it.

 He is very fair & sound in his opinions & views.

We have almost the worst possible news about the Queen's health tonight.

Yours
 George

William
