Albans

June 21st 1907.

Dearest Mother,

I have indeed been bad about writing - but such busy days as we have had - I came in from Uives yesterday morning, having enjoyed my little visit so much - It is just like living in one of Jessie Wilson Smith's story book pictures to be in the Stirlings house - Little square window panes, wooden wainscoting etc.
The house is almost settled now, but the grounds are of course just being gradually worked into shape - The verandah towards the river is just like a room & has two such restful hammocks.

I thought G. D. was looking better in the clay & $\frac{1}{2}$ I was away - She is indeed to go on well. This afternoon she was very restless finding her bandages uncomfortable - They have to be pretty tight to keep the tube in place -

The children got off comfortably this morning!

beautifully quiet then - I do so grudge each day away from G. M. for she does just seem to long for my visits - And how are things going with you, I am afraid the days must be long sometimes - You are waiting for J? I suppose I expect it will not be long now - I saw J? Martin today & he was asking for Father & said to give him his love - I didn't have time to really tell him about Father as he was in a hurry, someone waiting for him.

Wilfred Bovey has just departed after spending the evening with us.

Much love to

Father from

P. S. Uncle R + Aunt E. ^{Clare} speak of coming out together end of Aug or beginning of Sept.
